

PACKAGING DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

Lisbon, Portugal

Company description

Labatec Pharma is a Swiss pharmaceuticals company backed by more than 50 years' experience in proposing high-quality products to its home market. Our strategy is to continuously extend our drugs portfolio, focus on injectable generics for the hospital market, as well as grow multi-market.

Purpose and scope

Develop and manage packaging material for all products managed or manufactured by Labatec Pharma. Ensure compliance of packaging material and contribute to the improvement and introduction of new systems with the objective to improve the efficiency principally in the domain of packaging material but as well as in other departments in line with the company needs.

Key responsibilities and accountabilities

- Manage requests of Creation/Modification/Archiving of packaging material artworks
- Create and maintain artworks design of printed packaging using appropriate design softwares
- Review and approve technical specifications of packaging material artworks and print proofs
- Create and maintain barcodes (GTIN, EAN, Laetus, etc.)
- Get approval on packaging material artworks from the concerned departments
- Sign suppliers « Ready To Print » (RTP)
- Liaise with concerned departments internally (Regulatory Affairs, Supply Chain, Quality Assurance...) and external partners for all packaging related issues.
- Ensure traceability and archiving of packaging material artworks and RTP.
- Responsible for the maintenance of a database for packaging materials
- Define and maintain SOP linked to the position
- Contribute actively to the implementation of the serialization project

Education / Languages

- Pharmaceutical packaging
- « GMP » knowhow in pharmaceutical environment
- Technical project management
- Fluency in English – French is a plus

Professional skills and experience

- 3 to 6 years of experience in a similar role
- Knowhow of materials used for packaging
- Good command of graphic design software
- Good command of office software excel word, etc
- Command of project management and work-flow software

Please send your application to careers@labatec.ch